Dear Delegate, Friend and Supporter,

Due to the uncertain times we are in at present, and especially just after the Christmas season, the Board of Directors and the Dinner Dance Committee made a decision to postpone our dinner dance originally scheduled for Friday 28 January.

The United Irish Counties Association of New York Inc. is pleased to announce our 117th Annual Dinner Dance will now be held on Sunday, March 27, 2022, at Antun's, located at 96-43 Springfield Boulevard, Queens Village, NY. This year's festive occasion will begin with a deluxe cocktail hour at 3pm followed by dinner and dancing from 4pm to 8pm to the music of Rumor Has It. Tickets are $100.00 per person or a table of ten for $1,000.00.

We are delighted to announce, once again, our 'Gael of the Year' is Joseph Kenny. A native New Yorker with roots in Counties Longford and Tyrone, Joe is an Assistant Chief with the New York City Police Department. Joe began his career with the NYPD in January 1992, on patrol in the 32nd Precinct. With close to thirty years of service with the NYPD spanning many precincts, divisions and boroughs, Assistant Chief Kenny is currently the Commanding Officer of the Citywide Investigations Division, which oversees every major investigation in New York City, with over three thousand detectives assigned to his command. Joe has been an active member of the NYPD Emerald Society during his entire NYPD career and is a current board member of the NYPD Gaelic Football Club.

We are pleased to announce the recipient of this year's Rose Cosgrove Distinguished Service Award is Catherine T. Hogan. Bronx born and bred, Cathy is extremely proud of her Irish roots; her Dad was a native of County Clare and her maternal grandparents, County Galway. Cathy is a delegate to the UICANY from the County Clare P.B. & S. Association of New York City where she served as President from 2002 through 2004 and again from 2010 through 2014. A Past President and past Director of the UICANY, Cathy currently serves as our Corresponding Secretary as well as Secretary of the UICANY Feis Committee. An active supporter of the Irish and Irish American communities here in New York, Cathy is also a member of the Galway Association of New York where she serves as their Corresponding Secretary.

In conjunction with this event and in recognition of our honorees, we will be producing a souvenir journal. A journal contract is attached for your consideration and should be returned by Monday, March 14, 2022.

We look forward to greeting you now on March 27th as we pay tribute to our distinguished guests. A dinner dance reservation form is attached for your use and should be returned by Friday, March 18, 2022.

Proceeds from this annual event enable us to donate to and provide support to various Irish and Irish American cultural and educational events throughout the year. With your assistance, the UICANY continues to be a vibrant part of the Irish community, promoting and preserving our Irish heritage and culture, keeping true to the goals of our founding members.

We hope you will support us and help to make this special afternoon a success by attending the dinner dance and/or advertising in our journal.
